

LAND TRUST MEMBERSHIP

Member Benefits

CCLT's primary benefit to your land trust is its work on statewide issues, including:

- Shaping funding measures to meet land and conservation needs.
- Building strong laws to ensure land trusts' ability to operate and conserve land.
- Increasing the visibility and credibility of land trusts among elected officials, philanthropists, and the media.

In addition, you can also expect:

- Communications about statewide and regional conservation issues, such as the e-mail newsletter Conservation Currents, occasional action alerts, and guidance on when and how to take action.
- Access to CCLT on-line resources, reports, and sample documents.
- Participation in working groups and forums concerning issues vital to land trusts, and to provide input on developing and advancing land trust initiatives.
- Entrance to a high-quality and affordable benefits program to provide your valued employees with health, dental, and vision plans.
- Complimentary copies of Conservation Frontiers, other CCLT reports and other materials to inform your activities.
- Member Discounts on CCLT events including the annual conference, educational forums and networking events.
- Training opportunities in funding programs, fund development, communications and media, and advocacy with elected officials.
- Networking at the annual conference and regional meetings with educational and participatory elements.

Member Dues

CCLT's annual membership runs through the calendar year, and is based upon a sliding scale to reflect the diversity of size and financial capability. The dues are based on the annual operating budget of the organization. The schedule of dues is:

Operating budget	Dues	Operating budget	Dues
Under 50,000	$ 375	250,001 - 500,000	$ 2530
50,001 - 75,000	$ 949	500,001 - 1,000,000	$ 3162
75,001 - 100,000	$ 1265	1,000,001-3,000,000	$ 4428
100,001 - 250,000	$ 1897	over 3,000,001	$ 6325
